

A festive evening of art, music,
and wine honoring
Mark Ridley-Thomas
and supporting healthy kids

Wednesday, May 22, 2013
Pico House, Los Angeles

Indulge your passions for a worthy purpose during Wellness Works at the historic Pico House in downtown Los Angeles this May.

May 22, 6-10 pm • VIP Reception ($100)

Our VIP event will stir your senses. Honor children's health champion L.A. Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas as you enjoy gourmet appetizers and wines, live music, and enticing silent auction items. Peruse the unique artworks featured in the Wellness Works Art Exhibition and purchase one for your own collection – or to donate for display at one of LAUSD's 13 new wellness centers.

May 23, 7-10 pm • Public Reception ($20)

Bring the whole family! Enjoy music, appetizers, and beverages amid works of art created by kids and professional L.A. artists. Buy tickets at the door.

May 22-24, 11 am-3 pm • Free Art Exhibition

Be inspired by the transformative power of art at this unique showcase featuring works created by L.A.-based artists out of reclaimed materials from school-based health center construction sites. The free exhibit will also showcase works created by LAUSD students of all abilities who are collaborating with ART from the ashes' artists.

Benefitting ...

California School Health Centers Association (CSHC), L.A. Trust for Children's Health (the L.A. Trust), and ART from the ashes are 501(c)(3) non-profits. The L.A. Trust and CSHC promote school wellness and help communities start and sustain school health centers. ART from the ashes uses art as an instrument for transformation and renewal.